CATHY FINK & MARCY MARXER

FOLK MUSICIANS and GRAMMY WINNERS

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer are a formidable powerhouse of sound, with a repertoire of traditional and contemporary folk, old-time country and swing music. Their superb harmonies are backed by instrumental virtuosity on the acoustic and electric guitar, five-string banjo, mandolin, pennywhistle, hammered dulcimer, percussion and many other instruments.

Cathy & Marcy are an eclectic folk festival on their own terms. They have been keynote singers for the AFL-CIO, entertained the Queen of Thailand, sung at the White House Easter Egg Roll, performed at hundreds of folk festivals, appeared on the "Today Show" and on National Public Radio. They have been honored with over 35 WAMMY Awards from the Washington Area Music Association. Cathy & Marcy have shared the stage with Tom Paxton, Pete Seeger, Patsy Montana (the first woman in country music to sell one million records), and a long list of notables in folk and country music.

They have been nominated for a total of TEN GRAMMY Awards, and have won 2 GRAMMYS in a row in the category of Best Musical Album for Children. In 2005, Cathy & Marcy won their second GRAMMY, as producers of the Smithsonian Folkways CD "cELLAbration: A TRIBUTE TO ELLA JENKINS." Their first GRAMMY was in 2004 for BON APPETIT! MUSICAL FOOD FUN." In 2003, they were nominated for three GRAMMY awards, including, "POSTCARDS" in the Best Traditional Folk Album category.

Cathy & Marcy met in 1980 at the Toronto Folk Festival. They have played over 3000 shows in concert halls, schools, festivals and clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and Israel. They consistently win tremendous praise for their tight harmonies, acclaimed songwriting, and exquisite interpretations of traditional music. Their repertoire addresses topics ranging from heart songs to labor songs, history to today's news, comedy about middle age and parenting to the best in family entertainment. They sing, yodel, spin tales, play breathtaking instrumentals and have fun, always including their audience in the celebration. As Billboard Magazine exclaimed, their music is "as close to flawless folk/bluegrass as it gets."

Cathy & Marcy's original songwriting has won widespread recognition and acclaim. Cathy's anthem for the AIDs Memorial Quilt, "Names", has been recorded internationally by over 30 artists. Marcy has written scores for three independent films, and twice won recognition from the John Lennon Songwriting Contest.

Tom Paxton says:
"Cathy & Marcy are at home in a dozen musical styles. They swing you, jazz you, and old timey you till you just give up and bliss out."

The Auckland Folk Festival, New Zealand
"Possibly the most popular act of the weekend was the American duo Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer, who held a capacity crowd spellbound with their traditional and contemporary songs, and even the odd yodel." --Western Leader, Auckland, NZ

Vancouver Folk Music Festival (Festival program)
"True to the roots of the music, with a mastery of traditional styles, they have used that foundation to construct a contemporary repertoire that expresses their identity and concerns as late 20th century women artists. Virtuosity on fiddle, banjo and guitar is combined with a couple of great voices to produce one of the most exciting duos in country or any other kind of music."
