HEY HOWARD! "I signed up for the free offer & realized I can't live without you guys. Artie, Robin, Gary, Howard. Wow, the show is better than ever. I don't think I can ever listen to regular radio again. I used the free trial to explore most of the channels & this service is amazing. The only regret I have is that I waited so long. Big fan, Big fan."

THE NEWSROOM

HEADLINES
BABABOOEY BASHING GONE WILD

The roast of Stern Show executive producer Gary Dell'Abate was a huge success and even Gary, who was the butt of most of the jokes, said it was outstanding. "I loved it. I though it was great." Before the roast, Gary worried that too many comics would make jokes at the expense of his late father and brother. "I was surprised a little that Richard went for the father/brother stuff as much as he did. Sal was expected."

Sal, who has been making fun of Dell'Abate for years, took most of the heat when Artie took the microphone. "The justice with Sal was the Artie broke every rule there was. He picked on his kids, named them by name and then called them gay," said Gary. Sal even admitted that Artie was brilliant. "I got a taste of my own medicine so I commend Artie for it, it was good."

And one of the roasters was someone who played a major part of the Stern Show in past years, Jackie "The Jokeman" Martling. "I had a great time. It's nice to be working with Jews again." Fellow comedienne Lisa Lampanelli agreed the roast was a huge hit. "Best roast ever, better than any ones the Friars Club or Comedy Central ever did. This was an fking roast!!"

WHAT'S HOT

Queer Day

from and for the LGBTQ+ community.
PROGRAMMING

Gov. Jim McGreevey joins the OutQ In the Morning Town Hall
Fri 11/3 7:00 am ET
On Friday, November 3rd, OutQ in the Morning with Larry Flick will welcome former New Jersey Governor Jim McGreevey for the inaugural edition of OutQ in the Morning Town Hall.

OutQ in the Morning Town Hall is a new, monthly event led by a celebrity or newsmaker and interacting with everyday folks while focusing on a particular topic. In this edition, the topic is struggling with living life in the closet and facing the struggle to come out.

OutQ in the Morning with Larry Flick
Monday to Friday 7 am - 11 am ET
Like a group of friends gathering for breakfast at their favorite diner, Larry Flick and his pals Keith Price, Cynthia and OutQ listeners coast to coast gather to rant and rave about everything from important issues in the GLBT community to whether Britney looks better as a blonde or brunette. From discussion of life's daily dilemmas to chats with the hottest stars and intriguing newcomers in music and entertainment - waking up early ain't so bad after all!

Frank DeCaro Show
Monday to Friday 11 am - 2 pm ET
It's a bi-coastal brunch every weekday when pop culture funnyman Frank DeCaro, a dyed-in-the-sain New Yorker, and Dorie Biddle, the Kevin Bacon of lesbian Los Angeles, dish showbiz dirt - with extra blather! - and welcome the most fabulous guest list in either town! Of course you're invited! But you're not going to wear flats, are you?

Michelangelo Signorile Show
Monday to Friday 2 pm - 6 pm ET
Signorile puts sizzle in the afternoons with his provocative brand of hot talk that sends homophobes and right wing zealots running for cover! Michelangelo draws newsmakers and community leaders, as well as icons from pop culture to politics, to talk about the issues of the day, and you're invited to join them live on the air.

Derek & Romaine
Monday to Friday 6 pm - 10 pm ET
When the light of day begins to fade, the heat of the night takes on a life of its own, fueled by the outrageously funny and frisky Derek Hartley and Romaine Patterson. From personal ads to porn stars, astrology to ass-timonials, this is the hottest talk on talk radio!
John McMullen Show
Monday to Friday 10 pm - 1 am ET John McMullen opens his "GLBT community center" after-hours. Every hour is a rollercoaster ride that entertains, enlightens, engages, and - occasionally - enrages!
You'll hear thought-provoking dialogue with guests from all walks of life - and there's always room on John's soapbox for you!

Last Call
w/Jeremy Hovies Tuesday to Saturday 1 am to 7 am ET America's only nationally broadcast program featuring a collection of music exclusively by GLBT artists, or bands with at least one member who is openly gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender. Hear an eclectic collection that spans rock, pop and folk, GLBT comedy, plus interviews and special features on the artists. You'll also experience obscure titles with distinctly GLBT lyrics.

TIP OF THE DAY:

BOO BALLOONS
Isn't it funny how ghosts rear their heads at this time of year? They seem almost charming at first, but when darkness falls, those innocent expressions are a bit more menacing.

To make a floating ghost, snap one or two green eight-hour light sticks so they glow, and insert them into a white balloon; inflate balloon, and tie closed. Use a black marker to draw the ghost's ghastly visage. Repeat to make his friends. Then hang ghosts with transparent tape, and lower the lights.

Get Involved - Whatever w/ A&J Is Your Show Too

Or, "This is NAME from TOWN & STATE and you are listening to Whatever w/ Alexis & Jennifer." Be creative, have fun and then listen each day to hear your voice on our show!

LISTENER REVIEW
Whatever with Alexis & Jennifer is hosted by Jennifer Koppelman Hutt ("The Sound"—the girl can TALK!) and Alexis Stewart ("The Fury"—listen once, you'll get it), and in inimitable fashion, the two take on well, whatever! With topics ranging from Jennifer's fears (way too many to list) to Alexis's dislikes (ditto), to caller Sue from Palookaville's problems with her husband's brother, Alexis and Jennifer give insight, advice, and always tell it like it is. What makes it work has to be the on-air chemistry between the hosts — Jennifer, who needs to be liked (a lot) and Alexis, who couldn't care less, banter back and forth like, well, a lot of your own friends. In fact, it's a lot like hanging out with your...
girlfriends, provided you have friends who are neurotic, sarcastic, observant and funny. The show always opens with a topic, but that can be derailed by, say, Alexis’s most recent visit to the fertility doctor or Jennifer’s distress over her suburban friends expressing their thoughts on Alexis’s somewhat caustic demeanor. The show caps the week with F. You Friday. Every Friday callers can “F You” whomever or whatever they like, with often hilarious commentary from the girls.

working for a few years in the local crematorium as the resident organist, she decided that the very next best thing to being a rock star would be to date one. She met Pete Townshend and they fell in love. Which entitled her to an Access All Areas backstage pass to every Who show from here to eternity. Meeting with celebrities and getting into every nook and cranny, Rachel listened carefully to all the gossip, and what really went on backstage. And that's how little Rachel Fuller became "The Backstage B*." Read her report here.

MEET PETE

Pete talks about some of the new Who music they're playing on tour, the CSI effect and playing The Concert For New York City after 9/11, among other things. READ THE INTERVIEW.

REQUISITION ROGER

We'll be posting the interview incrementally. READ THE INTERVIEW.

The Original VJs

Here at Big '80s, we're psyched that we get to work with the original VJs, and listen to them grace our airwaves every day. We recently sat down with them to talk about their early days at MTV.

How did you get the MTV gig?

Nina: I was working on three different TV projects as a host... interviewing, chattin' about music, introducing videos and occasionally being hit in the face with a pie...

MARK: A friend of mine called to tell me about this company he'd heard was doing some sort of 24 hour video thing. So I just called someone I knew who was working there and set up an audition. It's an hour of fun, waiting for a chance encounter with that stray song, arbitrary anthem or erratic refrain that time nearly forgot. It's unpredictable, unplanned and undeniably great '80s music. Listen each day at 12 pm ET. We will be, 'cause we can't wait to hear what's playing next! And thanks to Simon Le Bon and Nick Rhodes of Duran Duran for the idea.
DJ schedules are subject to change. Times are in Eastern Standard Time (ET) except where noted.

Jim Ryan | email
Weekdays 6 am - 12 pm ET

Jim got into radio because of a strong aversion to “digging ditches or wearing suits and ties.” And it’s worked out well...Jim can tell you about the time Alanis Morissette rushed him out of a backstage bathroom, and when he hung with Matchbox 20 on their tour bus. Away from SIRIUS, Jim’s focused on his boat.

Kim Ashley | email
Daily 12 pm - 6 pm ET

It’s the ‘90s and now! Hear today’s Pop hits from artists such as matchbox twenty, Alanis Morissette, Maroon 5, Kelly Clarkson, Dave Matthews Band and more, all mixed with the best ‘90s music. Get the Pulse of adult pop!

What we play: The Goo Goo Dolls, Bon Jovi, U2, No Doubt, Hootie & The Blowfish, Seal.
Kim has always had an interest in music and entertainment, from the moment she attended her very first concert (Billy Joel) to interviewing some of her favorite artists (Sheryl Crow, Rob Thomas, Alanis Morissette, Duran Duran, Hootie and the Blowfish) for The Pulse on SIRIUS.

Karen Carson | email
Daily 6 pm - 12 am ET

Karen loves working at SIRIUS because of all of the different faces in the building—from fellow D.J.'s to Howard Stern to Sheryl Crow. She also loves the freedom at SIRIUS to talk about whatever she wants! Otherwise, Karen's favorite things in life are her three year old son and twin 1 year old daughters. Kickboxing takes a close second.

RACHEL FULLER'S BACKSTAGE REPORTS

Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Rachel Fuller who dreamt of growing up and becoming a rock star. After working for a few years in the local crematorium as the resident organist, she decided that the very next best thing to being a rock star would be to date one. She met Pete Townshend and they fell in love. Which entitled her to an Access All Areas backstage pass to every Who show from here to eternity. Meeting with celebrities and getting into every nook and cranny, Rachel listened carefully to all the gossip, and what really went on backstage. And that's how little Rachel Fuller became "The Backstage B." Read her reports here.

MEET PETE

The Who Channel's Rachel Fuller (more about her above) sat down with her beau, Pete Townshend, to do an exclusive interview for us. We'll be posting this interview (as well as another one with Roger, see below) in parts: as all of Pete's fans know, he's a great conversationalist. Pete talks about some of the new Who music they're playing on tour, the CSI effect and playing The Concert For New York City after 9/11, among other things. READ THE INTERVIEW.

REQUISITION ROGER

The Who Channel's Rachel Fuller (more about her above) interviewed Roger Daltrey for us. There was lots to talk about: of course, there's The Who's current tour and album, but also the recent reissues of some of Roger's solo records, his acting career, and his work with The Teenage Cancer Trust. We'll be posting the interview incrementally. READ THE INTERVIEW.

MEET THE BAND

These are the other guys in The Who's touring band. Interviews coming soon!

John "Rabbit" Bundrick - keyboards
Zak Starkey - drums

HANGIN' WITH TREY ANASTASIO

Trey Anastasio is obviously one of our favorite artists here at Jam_ON. Last year, we let him sit in the driver's seat to run the channel for a day. It was such a blast that extended the offer again. Of course, we couldn't resist asking him a few questions of our own. So, we spoke to him about jamming with Grateful Dead alumni, wearing bad fake leather vests, and his grandmother's sex life.

Dead Heads and Phish Heads share peace and love at this non-stop jam band festival. Whip out your tie-dye and Jam_ON.

What we play: The Grateful Dead, Phish, The String Cheese Incident, Widespread Panic, Gov't Mule, Santana, moe., The Allman Brothers Band, Dave Matthews Band, Robert Randolph and many more.

HANGIN' WITH FRED SCHNEIDER

At First Wave, we're big fans of Fred Schneider: we love his music as a member of The B-52's and his solo stuff too. And, of course, we love his program Party Out Of Bounds, which is how we kick off our weekends. We grabbed him before he stepped into the booth to ask him a few questions... about his record collection, about his music being immortalized in prime time animated shows, and, most importantly, where the HELL is the next B-52's album?

HARD ATTACK EXCLUSIVE: JOSE INTERVIEWS MAX CAVALERA

Every August, Soulfly hosts and headlines an event called the D-Low Memorial Festival in Arizona, in honor of Dana “D-Low” Wells. D-Low was Max Cavalera’s stepson, and was tragically killed in a 1996 car wreck. Tickets for the gig were a buck each, with all of the money going to the Iggy Diabetes Fund at the Phoenix Children’s hospital. Lots of cool bands gave their time to perform, including North Side Kings and Incite. But the highlight of the event was the reunion between Max and his brother – and former Sepultura bandmate – Igor Cavalera. Hard Attack’s Jose called Max for this exclusive interview to talk about the gig, and his future with his bro.

HANGIN' WITH SOCIAL DISTORTION

Mike Ness formed Social Distortion in the late '70s; if you told him back then that the band would still be rockin' in 2006, he probably would have laughed at you, spit on you, or kicked your ass. But the fact is, they're still here: through drug problems, death and lineup changes, not to mention a very fickle music industry. Some records have sold more than others, but Social D. has never let down their fans by giving in to trends. The band is on the road, and Mike stopped by recently; we talked about his solo records, hearing his music in movies and covering classic rock and country songs.

IN THE COFFEE HOUSE WITH THE INDIGO GIRLS

The Indigo Girls is one of our absolute favorite acts in the Coffee House. And while their acoustic guitar duo format would make them seem likely candidates for playing actual java joints, it turns out that they were always more at home in bars. Amy Ray and Emily Sailers recently stopped by to perform in our studios, and they spoke to us about being too rowdy for the folk scene, where they go for a cup of Joe and their new album, Despite Our Differences.

The Legends of The Blues
Daily 11 am ET
It started with our month-long salute to Black History Month, but your response and feedback was so positive that we'll continue to showcase the creators and innovators of the blues. Every morning Dave Mac tells the stories and plays the music of the performers who started it all - the roots players who created the blues and gave birth to rock 'n' roll, R&B, soul and so many other genres of music.

The Early Mardi Gras
Monday - Friday 2 pm ET
Earl Times brings you a set of three great sides from The Big Easy's greatest blues players. That's three in a row from the singers and musicians who were either born in New Orleans (Or "N'Awlins," as Dr. John would say) or have made the city their home and inspiration. Some of the New Orleans artists that show their stuff in this daily set range from: The Neville Brothers, Professor Longhair and "Big Mac" himself, to Katie Webster (The Swamp Queen of New Orleans), the great Henry Butler and even The Radiators. Earl is bringing you a set of sides that you can really party to - N'Awlins style.
The Rockers Doin' The Blues
Monday - Friday 11 pm ET
Pat St. John is passionate about this nightly set of The Rockers Doin' The Blues. From the early days when The Animals covered John Lee Hooker, right up to ZZ Top jammin' the blues today, this is an A to Z library of artists known for rock 'n' roll, who pay their respects to "where it all came from," the blues. Each weeknight, Pat plays three in a row from the likes of The Allman Brothers Band, Eric Clapton, and The Rolling Stones, to Robert Plant, Joe Cocker, and Aerosmith, as they pour their hearts into the music which influenced them immensely - and as you will hear - they truly love. Don't let the rock stars fool you - this is some SIRIUS Blues!
Swingers Delight
Saturday 8 pm - 11 pm ET
The joint is jumpin' with three solid hours of the greatest big bands and singers of the swing era featuring Benny Goodman, Count Basie, Ella Fitzgerald, Glenn Miller, Fats Waller and Tommy Dorsey.

The Great American Songbook as sung - and swung - by the classic artists of our time. The perfect mix of yesterday's giants like Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis, Jr. and Dean Martin with today's coolest singers including Diana Krall, Harry Connick, Jr., and Michael Buble. When you're ready to swing, enjoy the big band sounds of Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey that keep this joint jumpin'!

You'll hear timeless favorites like: "It Had To Be You", "As Time Goes By", "In The Mood", "Beyond The Sea," "Over The Rainbow", "Take The 'A' Train', "Volare" and "Fly Me To The Moon".

http://www.sirius.com/servlet/ContentServer?pagename=Sirius/Page&c=FlexContent&cid=1130574541451
The roast of Stern Show executive producer Gary Dell’Abate was a huge success and even Gary, who was the butt of most of the jokes, said it was outstanding. "I loved it. I thought it was great." Before the roast, Gary worried that too many comics would make jokes at the expense of his late father and brother. "I was surprised a little that Richard went for the father/brother stuff as much as he did. Sal was expected."

Sal, who has been making fun of Dell’Abate for years, took most of the heat when Artie took the microphone. "The justice with Sal was the Artie broke every rule there was. He picked on his kids, named them by name and then called them gay," said Gary. Sal even admitted that Artie was brilliant. "I got a taste of my own medicine so I commend Artie for it, it was good."

And one of the roasters was someone who played a major part of the Stern Show in the past years, Jackie "The Jokeman" Martling. "I had a great time. It's nice to be working with Jews again." Fellow comedienne Lisa Lampanelli agreed the roast was a huge hit. "Best roast ever, better than any ones the Friars Club or Comedy Central ever did. This was an fking roast!"

PROGRAMMING

Wall-To-Wall Good Stuff
Tuesdays 1 pm ET
PJ Walsh is the funniest guy ever to floss a President of the United States' teeth. But more on that later.

PJ is here every Tuesday to take your comedy requests and give you an insight into the world of Blue Collar, which he's earned having opened for Larry the Cable Guy, Bill Engvall and Ron White.

Okay, about the flossing: While in the Navy--PJ is a proud veteran who's performed for troops many times--he was selected as Primary Dental Care Technician for the White House. Which means he's been in the mouths of President Bill Clinton and Vice President Gore and their families. And you wonder how he became a comedian?

Comedy By Request

You make the call, we play the clip: Pete Dominick hosts the world's first and only comedy-by-request show, which we've chosen to title Comedy By Request. Call Pete at 1.866.4.RAW DOG (or email us) and request your favorite bits from the SIRIUS comedy vault.

Jim Breuer Unleashed
Weekdays 4 pm - 6 pm ET

Whether the guest is a rock star, comedian, or Martha Stewart, everyone is part of the hang and no one escapes Breuer's unmistakable brand of raw truth. Turn on Rawdog everyday from 4 pm - 6pm ET for the

WHAT'S HOT

This week, “hotties” Willa Ford, Shanna Moakler, and Brooke Hogan visit the studio. Brook’s bringing her Dad to the interview, a somewhat obscure former professional wrestler named HULK. Maxim Radio clues you in on how to get lucky this Halloween - what her naughty cop outfit really says about her. Plus the 20 hottest women you’ve never heard of... yet. And, what’s up with beards?

You’ve seen the drama on Hogan Knows Best - Brooke Hogan really sweated it out, recording her debut album. Now comes the hard work: getting it played on the radio. Luckily, for Brooke, she's got her dad Hulk with her, to "persuade" Maxim Radio's Covino and Rich to give it a few spins. Wednesday at 4:30 pm ET (rebroadcast Thursday 7:30 am ET).

Can the ability to “get jiggy with it” on the dance floor help you pull the ladies?

10/27/2006
Willa Ford, fresh off of Dancing With The Stars comes by to answer that ages-old question. Plus, Covino and Rich subject her to “Buckets of Justice,” the extreme Q and A. She'll also talk about her upcoming Maxim photo shoot. Wednesday at 5 pm ET (rebroadcast Thursday at 8 am ET).

Did she or didn't she? Alleged Paris-puncher Shanna Moakler gets in the ring, as it were, with Covino and Rich to talk about her upcoming Maxim photo shoot. Watch what you say, boys. Thursday at 5 pm ET (rebroadcast Friday at 8 am ET).

Vanessa Rousso isn't just gorgeous, she's also a friggin' felt shark! For those of you who don't hang in Vegas or obsess over gambling shows on TV, that means she's an ace poker player. She'll be in the studio with Bower all week from November 6 - 10, cleaning out the poor fool's pockets. Uh, sorry, let's try that again: she'll be in the studio with Bower all week, delivering the ultimate Maxim poker "how to." Tune in every day from 10 am ET to 2 pm. Your child's college tuition may depend on it.

Former Miss America, Reality TV Star and Paris puncher Shanna Moakler visits Covino and Rich to preview her upcoming MAXIM photo shoot.

Rebroadcast: Fri., Oct. 27th @ 8 am ET.

Covino & Rich
Monday to Friday 3 pm - 7 pm ET
With hosts Rich Davis, Sami J and Steve "el Covino."
Rich is the proud owner of two adorable poodles, loves Neil Diamond and has amazing hair. Covino has a Don Mattingly poster in his bedroom and vanity searches himself on Google at least once a day. He too prides himself on his amazing hair. Marvel at their ceaseless attempts to ck block one another every time a beautiful woman walks in the studio. What in God's name are these two tools doing with their own show on Maxim Radio? Find out weekdays between 3p and 7p Eastern Email Rich at rich@maximradio.com & Covino at covino@maximradio.com.

Bower
Monday to Friday 10 am - 2 pm ET Hosted by Bower with Producer Laura.

He drinks on the job... but it's for work. No really, Bower is the only "real man" on Maxim radio and he'll fight you to prove it. He likes his women hot, his cars fast, and his metal heavy. While Bower is clean and maintains his appearance, he does not prioritize things like nail care and tanning. He is still undecided on weather or not NASCAR is a sport and he golfs. Armed with a studio full of liquor, women, and good tunes Bower invades your earhole weekdays from 10a-2p Eastern.

Devore and Diana
7 pm - 11 pm ET
The best thing to happen to radio since... Sound effect CDs full of fart noises? John Devore has spent the past seven years writing high-brow genital jokes for Maxim magazine and Maxim Online, and is now intent on helping to destroy Maxim Radio - with your help. He's a recovering Texan with a severe drinking enthusiasm, a bad attitude, and a love of calling bullshit on the bastard douchebags who deserve it most. Diana Falzone did something very bad in a past life, like drop kicking retarded kittens, which explains why she's stuck on the air with Devore. A multi-talented hottie with an angel's voice and a dirty twinkle in her eye, she is better than you in every way and you will love her for it.
Devore and Diana talk pop, rock, politics, and all the absurd crap that happens every day that most people are too scared to stop and think about. Tune in Monday through Fridays, 7p to 11p EST.

TIP OF THE DAY:

BOO BALLOONS
Isn't it funny how ghosts rear their heads at this time of year? They seem almost charming at first, but when darkness falls, those innocent expressions are a bit more menacing.

To make a floating ghost, snap one or two green eight-hour light sticks so they glow, and insert them into a white balloon; inflate balloon, and tie closed. Use a black marker to draw the ghost's ghastly visage. Repeat to make his friends. Then hang ghosts with transparent tape, and lower the lights.

Get Involved - Whatever w/ A&J Is Your Show Too
Would you like to hear yourself on the air? Now you can leave a personalized message at 866-SMY-SIRIUS (569-7474).

When you call, be sure to tell us your NAME and WHERE you live, then ask your fellow listeners to Call Alexis & Jennifer at 1-866-675-6675. Or, "This is NAME from TOWN & STATE and you are listening to Whatever w/ Alexis & Jennifer." Be creative, have fun and then listen each day to hear your voice on our show!

LISTENER REVIEW
Whatever with Alexis & Jennifer is hosted by Jennifer Koppelman Hutt ("The Sound"--the girl can TALK!) and Alexis Stewart ("The Fury"--listen once, you'll get it), and in inimitable fashion, the two take on well, whatever! With topics ranging from Jennifer's fears (way too many to list) to Alexis's dislikes (ditto), to caller Sue from Palookaville's problems with her husband's brother, Alexis and Jennifer give insight, advice, and always tell it like it is. What makes it work has to be the on-air chemistry between the hosts -- Jennifer, who needs to be liked (a lot) and Alexis, who couldn't care less, banter back and forth like, well, a lot of your own friends. In fact, it's a lot like hanging out with your girlfriends, provided you have friends who are neurotic, sarcastic, observant and funny. The show always opens with a topic, but that can be derailed by, say, Alexis's most recent visit to the fertility doctor or Jennifer's distress over her suburban friends expressing their thoughts on Alexis's somewhat caustic demeanor. The show caps the week with F You Friday. Every Friday callers can "F You" whomever or whatever they like, with often hilarious commentary from the girls.

Check out Whatever with Alexis & Jennifer. First it's a curiosity, then it's an addiction.

PROGRAMMING

The Original Mercury Theater Production of War of the Worlds
Mon 10/30 8:00 pm ET
8 pm ET, October 30, 1938. A nation tuning in to CBS Radio heard a startling broadcast: Earth was being invaded by beings from Mars...

Orson Welles' Mercury Theatre radio adaptation of H. G. Wells' The War of the Worlds originally aired as a Halloween special. Welles' genius was to set the story, not in late-19th century England, as in the original, but in 1938 New Jersey, and perform it like a news broadcast. Reportedly, many listeners believed the invasion was real.

6 pm ET, October 30th, 2006. RadioClassics will re-broadcast the original Mercury Theater production of The War of the Worlds. Listen as a nation did nearly 70 years ago.

The Red Zone

What's up with Dolphin's coach Nick Saban being too busy to dine with President Bush?

You know that I definitely would've accepted the invite. I never miss a meal.

Never, EVER, turn down dinner at Joe’s Stone Crab in Miami or Chicago! I would have blown off Bush and gotten a table after he left.

Saban heard that Bruce Murray predicted the Dolphins will win the Super Bowl. Now he's feeling the pressure!

The coach has his priorities straight, especially since they got Culpepper. (Though I think they'll still just be OK.)

Do you play any fantasy sports?

Yup. I'm in a fantasy football league with some buddies.

Sure do. When I'm talking to beautiful women, I play fantasy pocket pool.

Of course! My first fantasy team was in 8th grade, and Antoine Walker killed my shooting percentage. Nothing has changed!

I love fantasy football. Last year I beat all the guys at my day job.

Where do you think the Stanley Cup is right now?

I doubt if it's anywhere in Carolina country. More likely some bar in Canada.

Pete Laviolette has The Cup at the Cask 'n Flagon in Boston where all of his buddies are drinking beer out of it.

It's in Mike Commodore's bathroom—full of hair that used to be a thick beard and a red afro!

That tradition is weird. I'd be happy with the ring. Last I heard, it was in Minnesota and I loved when it visited a children's hospital.

Will you see Mel Gibson's next movie?

Absolutely. My son's middle name is Wallace—named after Gibson's character in Braveheart.

I haven't seen his last 5 films—forget him! Even chicks don't want anything to do with Mel anymore.

No. The image of Gibson waxing his legs in What Women Want is stuck in my head. But if Natalie Mendoza will be in the flick, I'm there!

I'm still in love with Mel Gibson for his courage in Braveheart. He can do no harm in my eyes. Besides he said he was sorry.

explanation for the name is that despairing sailors would throw horses overboard to preserve supplies. So what’s the connection between the book and inspiration a combination of a former lover’s battle with cancer and the war in Iraq?

We hear from Pulitzer award winning writer Tony Kushner, he explains why he decided to base his latest work Caroline Or Change on his relationship, as a boy in Louisiana, with his family’s Black maid. We go to the opening night at London’s National Theatre, speak to one of the show’s stars Pippa Bennett-Warner and find out what the audience think of the musical.

As the second movie version of All the Kings Men starring Sean Penn and Jude Law opens we take a look at both the film and the novel that inspired it. It was first published 60 years ago and spawned an American archetype in the character of Huey Long - a self-described "hick" politician who makes himself dictator of a US deep south state. Does it still have a resonance today?

Plus this week's performance is by Leila Adu whose voice has been described as "tender and terrifying". She's the singer-songwriter daughter of a regular Ticket listener who wrote to tell us we had to have her on the show. We had to agree once we heard her music, which draws on her Ghanaian heritage, New Zealand upbringing and interest in Indonesian gamelan music.

GM Cats: Allergy-free house cats now available at $4000/pet. Is this the beginning of a new generation of pets bred to fit in with our lifestyles today?

Green Weaponry: British Aerospace are designing environmentally-friendly weapons including reduced lead bullets, and recycling waste explosives; and they insist green arms is not a contradiction in terms.

SIRIUS to air Variety Radio News multiple times each hour every day

NEW YORK – June, 29, 2006 – SIRIUS Satellite Radio (NASDAQ: SIRI) and Variety, the "show business bible," today announced the launch of a radio news bureau, based in Variety's Los Angeles offices, that will provide the latest in entertainment news to SIRIUS' national radio audience multiple times each hour of every day.

Launching this fall, Variety Radio News will broadcast regular reports on SIRIUS' Los Angeles channel 150. With contributions from veteran Variety reporters and editors and SIRIUS' national reach, listeners will... now be able to hear the latest from the worlds of film, TV, publishing and online media, as well as industry gossip, anywhere they are, including as they drive to and from work and industry functions.

Variety is recognized throughout the world as the entertainment industry's newspaper of record, covering the global media and entertainment marketplace in 84 countries. With its seasoned editorial team and the largest newsgathering staff in the industry, Variety delivers breaking news, exclusive "scoops," box office reports, plus film and TV production charts. "Variety delivers an insider's view on film, TV, music, the Internet, and publishing with concise and provocative insight," said Scott Greenstein, SIRIUS President, Entertainment and Sports. "Variety Radio News will become as indispensable to the industry as the magazine itself, and also make it possible for anyone in the country to be as up-to-date as any movie insider. Whether it's on the way to work, a screening, or anywhere life takes them, SIRIUS will put Variety right there with them."

Peter Bart, Variety Editor-in-Chief, said: "Variety chose SIRIUS as our partner because of its already strong credibility in the entertainment world and SIRIUS' unrivaled ability to reach a national audience. There is clearly an appetite for news from the world of media and entertainment that is both timely and credible. It is our intention to get it first and also get it right."
