That is, those services that are not offered in combination with any secondary transmission service for a single fee. There are two exceptions: you do not need to give rate information concerning: (1) services furnished at cost; and (2) services or facilities furnished to nonsubscribers. Rate information should include both the amount of the charge and the unit in which it is usually billed. If any rates are charged on a variable per-program basis, enter only the letters "PP" in the rate column.  Block 1: Give the standard rate charged by the cable system for each of the applicable services listed.  Block 2: List any services that your cable system furnished or offered during the accounting period that were not listed in block 1 and for which a separate charge was made or established. ## INSTRUCTIONS:

General: In space G, identify every television station (including translator stations and low power television stations) carried by your cable system during the accounting period, except: (1) stations carried only on a part-time basis under FCC rules and regulations in effect on June 24, 1981 permitting the carriage of certain network programs [sections 76.59(d)(2) and (4), 76.61(e)(2) and (4) or 76.63 (referring to 76.61(e)(2) and (4))]; and (2) certain stations carried on a substitute program basis, as explained in the next paragraph.

Substitute Basis Stations: With respect to any distant stations carried by your cable system on a substitute program basis under specific FCC rules, regulations, or authorizations:

• Do not list the station here in space G—but do list it in space I (the Special Statement Program Log)—if the station was carried only on a substitute basis.

• List the station here, and also in space I, if the station was carried both on a substitute basis and also on some other basis. For futher information concerning substitute basis stations, see page (v) of the General Instructions.

Column 1: List each station's call sign. Do not report program services such as BBO ESEN ale.

Column 2: Give the number of the channel on which the station's broadcasts are carried in its own community. This may be different from the channel on which your cable system carried the station.

Column 3: Indicate in each case whether the station is a network station, an independent station, or a noncommercial educational station, by entering the letter "N" (for network), "I" (for independent) or "E" (for noncommercial educational). For the meaning of these terms, see page (iv) of the General Instructions.

Column 4: Give the location of each station. For U.S. stations, list the community to which the station is licensed by the FCC. For Mexican or Canadian stations, if any, give the name of the community with which the station is identified.

PRIMARY TRANSMITTERS: RADIO In General: List every radio station carried on a separate and discrete basis and list those FM stations carried on an all-band basis whose signals were "generally receivable" by your cable system during the accounting period.
Special Instructions Concerning All-Band FM Carriage: Under Copyright Office Regulations, an FM signal is "generally receivable" if: (1) "it is carried by the system whenever it is received at the system's headend"; and (2) it can be expected, on the basis of monitoring, to be received at the headend, with the system's FM antenna, during certain stated intervals. For detailed information about the the Copyright Office Regulations on this point, see page (iv) of the General Instructions.  Column 1: Identify the call sign of each station carried.  Column 2: State whether the station is AM or FM.  Column 3: If the radio station's signal was electronically processed by the cable system as a separate and discrete signal, indicate this by placing a check mark in the "S/D" column.  Column 4: Give the station's location (the community to which the station is licensed by the FCC or, in the case of Mexican or Canadian stations, if any, the community with which the station is identified).
