Subject: RE: SDARS III - today's production of agreements

Hi Todd,

No, I do not have an update on Spotify. For the time being, those agreements have been removed from today's production.

However, I do have an update on another service. Tidal's counsel told us for the first time a very short while ago that they are considering filing a motion. We have given them 48 hours – until COB Thursday – to file a motion or we will produce the agreements then. Accordingly, we are going to hold the Tidal agreements out of today's production, as well.

Todd, Paul and Ben,

We are on track to produce agreements today. However, my team has informed me that today's production will not include Spotify agreements. I do not have more information at this point. I am trying to learn more and will update you if and when I do. But in the meantime I wanted to let you know right away.

Thanks.

Jared
